GREAT QUOTES OF OUR TIME

"Future historians may well say that the nation's battle for policing a multi-racial society by consent was won on the Soho Road and in the back streets of Handsworth".

Lord Scarman in his introduction to "Policing by Multi-Racial consent - The Handsworth Experience."

FALLING APART AT THE SEAMS

BRITAIN'S MULTI-RACIAL society is falling apart at the seams!

Last month saw horrific RACE RIOTS in Brixton and Handsworth. Disorders of the magnitude not seen in this country before. RACE RIOTS that have seen the raping of white women by black gangs, and RACE RIOTS that have seen Britain's inner-cities raised to the ground by an orgy of burning and looting.

Totally Different

While the politicians of all parties fall over themselves to make excuses for the mayhem, the National Front stands alone in telling the British people what is responsible.

MULTI-RACIALISM IS RESPONSIBLE. The flooding of our tiny island with millions of black and brown people from lands totally different to ours, with their totally different values, culture and heritage.

Death and Sorrow

The National Front is the only party that believes Britain should be a mono-racial society. Multi-racialism wherever it raises its ugly head means death and disorder, sadness and sorrow. There is not a country on our planet where multi-racialism has been a success, and that is why the National Front calls for an end to coloured immigration and a policy of returning coloured immigrants already living in Britain to their country of ethnic origin.

SWAMPED!

by a Black Baby Boom

THERE HAS been a frightening upsurge in the number of births to coloured immigrant mothers according to the Office of Population Censuses and Surveys.

More than half the births in four London boroughs last year were born to mothers coming from the New Commonwealth, Pakistan and the Old Commonwealth.

The figures which only relate to Greater London and the 15 Metropolitan and non-Metropolitan districts, show a steady increase over figures published in 1983 and 1984.

EDITORIAL No.71, October 1985.

Making a Secure & Knowledgable Base

THE ANNUAL REMEMBRANCE Day Parade organised by the National Front is always regarded by NF members as a gauge to the progress of the National Front during the past year.

If you remember last November the numbers of those attending, after years of decline, were up for the first time since 1979.

That every member turns out for Remembrance Day is of course important and all the signs point to the National Front having a larger march than in 1984.

But the progress of the party during 1985 can be monitored in terms other than in numbers because, for the first time in the history of the National Front, material assets have been accrued by the party.

By means of buying our own printing press the NF is no longer dependent on outside printers. For the first time ever we have been able to bring out our publications each month and every month, and of course this year has seen NF News double in size.

The new head office computer means that the administration has shot forward into the eighties in a matter of months after spending eighteen years using equipment whose only asset was its antique value.

QUEST FOR POWER

Owning vital pieces of equipment that facilitate the running of the National Front shows that we are taking seriously our quest for power in the British political arena. But it is no good having the ship if you haven't got a capable crew to man it.

That is where the real progress has been made within the NF this year. The progress in the education of our members.

1985 has seen an 80% increase in new members. With such an influx it has been of prime importance that at the earliest opportunity the new recruits learn what the National Front is all about.

The week-end education and training seminars run by Joe Pearce and Nick Griffin have gone a long way in improving the political knowledge of new and not so new members.

The two-day courses, there have been five in the last six weeks, teach those present the skills of election campaigning, producing a newspaper and running a National Front branch. The courses explain our ideology, the importance of knowing about our heritage and racial identity and the thinking behind the formation of some of our specific policies.

In 1985 the NF Education and Training Department has played a major part in making a secure and knowledgable base from which the National Front can launch its campaigns for 1985.

YARD INVESTIGATE FIRES

ASIAN COMMUNITY leaders in London are calling for Scotland Yard to set up a special unit to investigate arson attacks on Asian houses.

The call comes after the breakdown of a meeting between 50 community leaders and 5 senior police officers to discuss the apparent rise of fires in houses belonging to Asians.

Mr. Tariq Azim Khan, chairman of the Pakistani Council, was livid that the police chiefs did not necessarily accept that such incidents were racially motivated.

Arson Attacks on Asians

APRIL 23rd WAS a bad day for Asian chemists in South London.

At 1.30 am, petrol was poured through the letterbox of NSK Patel Chemists in Upper Tooting Road and the building set ablaze. An hour later St. Clare's Chemists at Fairgreen Parade, Mitcham, also Asian owned, was burnt to the ground.

At 4.30 am., a third fire gutted a pharmacy owned by Jagdish Kanani in London Road, Thornton Heath. Local Asian leaders accused White youngsters of starting the fires and the media widely reported that the arson attacks were racially motivated.

On August 1st at the Old Bailey, however, Kirit Patel, a former Metropolitan policeman was remanded in custody for psychiatric reports after being found guilty of three charges of burning down the three chemists, and two charges involving a danger to life.

Have You Gotta Light Boy

ONE OF the world's top eye surgeons, Mahoud Nafie, was given a conditional discharge and ordered to pay compensation after pleading guilty to threatening to burn a house down.

Southend magistrates heard how Nafie had gone to the home of a former girlfriend in Rochford, Essex, smashed two windows and poured petrol through the letterbox.

The house was only saved because he did not have a match to light it with.

DEFEND THOSE WHO STAND UP FOR BRITAIN

MILLIONS of TV viewers all over Britain saw members of the National Front demonstrating their anger against IRA terrorism when the NF opposed a recent Sinn Fein march in London.

But National Front activists are having to pay the price for supporting our racial brothers and sisters in Ulster. Twenty-eight NF members were arrested and have been charged with offences under the Public Order Act. They all face heavy fines.

Nationalists should also not need reminding that Ian Anderson, Joe Pearce and Martin Wingfield of the NF's National Executive all face imminent prison sentences. Newcastle activists and Sid Campbell from Kent are all up under the Race Relations Act. The NF's Drum Corps have also been charged with wearing a "political uniform".

All face heavy fines — or prison — because they dare stand up for our Race and Nation!

● These NF members face Public Order charges.

Help pay these fines

The Nationalist Welfare Association will be helping them as much as possible. But to fight effectively, the NWA needs money. In order to help our activists pay their fines, please rush all donations to: The Nationalist Welfare Association, Hill House, Huntingfield, Halesworth, Suffolk, IP19 OPW. Please make out all Cheques/PO's to "Nationalist Welfare Association". (In order that as much money as possible can be made available to pay fines, etc., please enclose a stamped, self-addressed envelope, if you want your donation to be acknowledged.)

NF LOSE SCHOOL DEBATE

PATRICK HARRINGTON, Chairman of the National Front's Legal Department spoke in a debate at Oundle School, in Cambridgeshire on Wednesday 18th September.

Patrick opposed the motion 'This House believes in the benefits of multi-racialism' before an audience of 250 pupils. Although the motion was carried by 126-60 with a large number of abstentions Patrick was very pleased with the response the National Front argument received.

"It was a very interesting debate and enjoyed by all those present. There was a genuine interest in the policies of the National Front from both pupils and staff".

HARRINGTON B.A.

NF News would like to take this opportunity of congratulating Patrick on obtaining his B.A. Honours Degree in Philosophy with a 2.2 pass. No mean achievement considering the aggravation he had to put up with last year.

Well Done Patrick!

A MENTION also for Chairman of the NF Students' Association, Paul Deacon, and Edinburgh Branch Secretary, Peter Shepherd, who both obtained First Class Honours Degrees from their respective universities.

60 LOCALS HEAR NICK GRIFFIN

FOR THE first time in five years a National Front meeting was held in Preston, Lancashire.

Over 60 local members heard a speech by Deputy Chairman, Nick Griffin and plans were made to re-form the Preston Branch of the National Front.

The meeting was organised with the help of Blackpool NF in direct response to a large number of inquiries about the Front from the area.

READING NF GET ORGANISED

THE FIRST week in September saw the first meeting for the Reading Branch of the National Front.

Ian Anderson, Chairman of the National Front, was the guest speaker and presided over the meeting that elected the first Reading Branch committee for five years.

Belfast Doubles NF News Order

BARELY TWO months after being reformed Belfast National Front has doubled its order for NF News.

Branch Organiser Andy McLorie reports great progress in the city and membership from the Province as a whole. 1985 has been a good year for recruitment.

KENT HEAD JUMBLE SALE LEAGUE

SOUTH-EAST Kent Branch of the National Front raised £112.00 in a jumble sale on the first Saturday in September. This amount beats the £95.00 raised by Brighton Branch the previous week.

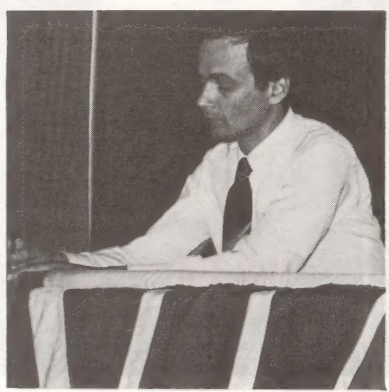

Is your branch making the most of its fund-raising potential? If your branch has had a recent jumble sale that's made more than S.E. Kent's £112.00, let NF News know!

LONDON GETS THE FRONT MESSAGE!

NF CHAIRMAN, Ian Anderson, appeared on LBC radio on Sunday 22nd September in a 30 minute programme about the National Front.

Answering questions from both an interviewer and members of the public by means of a phone-in, Ian answered queries on topics from repatriation to the health service.

For the first time for many years the people of London were able to listen to the National Front's viewpoint and hear the finer points of NF policy explained in a calm and rational manner.

PERSONAL

THOUGHTS

THE VERY welcome Black Sections within the Labour Party are already having an encouraging effect on the workings of many Labour-controlled London boroughs.

The practise of preventing white parents from fostering black children because it "destroys the child's racial identity" is a splendid idea and 'racially-matched fostering' has been adopted (sorry) by a number of councils.

One is Camden where Sri Lankan-born Social Services Director, Patrick Kodikara (salary £26,000) avidly pursues the racially-matched policy.

It's a pity that Kodikara doesn't practice what he preaches in his private life though. According to the satirical magazine Private Eye "Apart from leaving a wife and three children to languish in his native Sri Lanka, Kodikara has other-wise sired children for Hackney councillor Dinah Morley (white), Nalگو activist Cathy Warnock (white) and Hackney Social Services functionary Sally Whittaker (white).

Whitehall Branch

AH WELL, it's out now. That investigative journal, Ms. London, on September 2nd, reveals all in an article complaining that prostitutes in the Kings Cross area are being harassed by the Police and the National Front.

"A lot of people say there are contacts between the National Front and the Police and indeed, that some senior members are in the police force".

Come on, own up, Newman K. Membership No. 1212.

Aid from Israel

FOLLOWING the stoning of Boy George in Athens in a show of anger against homosexuals, the Greeks last month turned their attention to another minority.

The weekly magazine 'Stohos', it means Target, carried a front page story "Jews Created Aids". The article claimed that the Aids virus was developed by Jews and Zionists in order to dominate the world.

And there are people who claim NF News is anti-semitic.

Into the Lion's Den?

SOCIAL SECURITY fraud officers in West London and Thames Valley have saved £500,000 in fraudulent claims after a six week investigation in Windsor, Hounslow, Camberley, Maidenhead, Bracknell and Wokingham. Of the 2,300 people investigated, 689 had their claims withdrawn.

Social Security chiefs, although flushed with the success of the operation, have refused to comment of the alleged proposals that the next areas for investigation were Southall, Notting Hill, Paddington, Brixton, Camden, Brent and Tower Hamlets.

C...is for Cruise

SIXTY MILLION adult Americans, one-third of the adult population, cannot read the front page of a newspaper.

That's according to a report by the North-East Midwest Institute which revealed that 16% of white adults, 44% of blacks and 56% of Hispanics are "total, functional or marginal non-readers".

And these are the people who control the Cruise Missiles that defend Britain. Let's just hope that the order to fire isn't a written one.

DEFENDING FREE SPEECH

CHATHAM SEPT 4th

ONE HUNDRED and fifty members of the National Front held a successful 'Defend Free Speech' in Chatham on September 4th despite a ban on the party holding meetings on council property.

Sixty counter-demonstrators stood in pouring rain for two hours to oppose the NF rally outside the Town Hall and were drowned out by the NF speakers Paul Johnson, Martin Wingfield and Ian Anderson.

The Front members then went on to hold a meeting at the United Reform Church Hall where an enthusiastic audience heard speeches from amongst others, Medway ex-serviceman Sid Campbell who faces charges under the Race Relations Act and Joe Pearce who at the age of twenty-one was jailed for six months for 'inciting racial hatred'.

Local press attended the meeting which resulted in excellent coverage for the local branch.

All in all, despite appalling weather and difficulties of other Kent members getting to Chatham by 8.00 o'clock for the meeting, the meeting was thought to have been one of the best indoor rallies the National Front has held for a number of years.

A collection of £157.00 was raised for the 'Defend Free Speech' campaign.

● Sid Campbell addresses the meeting.

BRIGHTON SEPT 20th

ON TUESDAY 9th July Brighton Council voted to ban the National Front from holding a 'Defend Free Speech' meeting at the Pavilion Theatre in New Road, Brighton.

On Friday 20th September 130 members of the National Front from Brighton, Worthing, Eastbourne, Crawley and Croydon, despite that council ban, held a 'Defend Free Speech' meeting at the Pavilion Theatre.

The Front had only originally intended to hold a rally on the steps of Brighton Town Hall and hand in a letter of protest at the council ban. But Albion Express, a printing firm were so incensed by the ban that they contacted the NF and said they were willing to book a council hall and then invite the National Front along to speak.

On the day of the meeting

300 anti-NF demonstrators blocked the roads around the Town Hall and National Front members, including over 30 ex-servicemen and women, with the help of the Police had to push their way through the mob.

'Letter of Protest'

The noise from the demonstrators was deafening and a hail of missiles, including bricks, greeted Brighton Chairman, Ted Budden, and Brighton Organiser, Carolyn Giles as they dropped in the letter of protest at the Town Hall.

The speeches at the rally were cut short when the NF public address system blew up, all adding to the tenseness of the situation. As the Front made their way from the Town Hall the police starting arresting numbers of Reds who were throwing bricks and railings. Police horses and dogs were brought in to break up a mob who were attacking National Front members arriving late for the rally.

What was turning into a near battle raged on into North Street and New Road where the Police managed to hold back the protestors as the NF filed into the council hall for the meeting.

An enthusiastic meeting heard speeches from Brighton Chairman, Ted Budden, NF Regional Organiser Martin Wingfield, Education and Training Chairman, Joe Pearce and National Front Chairman Ian Anderson.

Editor of New Nation, Nick Griffin, chaired the meeting and a collection raised over £130.00.

On the streets of Brighton mayhem continued while the Front were meeting with shop windows smashed, cars vandalised, seats over-turned and passers-by threatened.

The 'Defend Free Speech' meeting showed the people of Brighton that the National Front will not be denied its rights by a town council that is prepared to let halls to the IRA; and that the only people who cause trouble at National Front meetings are its opponents.

The evening was a victory for the National Front and a disaster for the Reds and their friends on Brighton Council.

● Despite the ban, the NF fills Brighton's Pavilion Theatre.

BANZI! THE KILLING OF BRITISH CARS

IN AN effort to get around together European restrictions on car imports Nissan Japan is increasing the production targets for its new car plant being built at Washington, Tyne and Wear.

The Japanese car industry getting a foothold in Britain spells the death knell for the British Motor Industry. Nissan, while taking advantage of the generous concessions offered by the Government to attract industry to the job-starved North-East, refuse to be bound to the area of the workforce. As long as the concessions last and the trading climate favours Tyne-side they will make the most of flooding the British car market with their 'British Assembled' cars and using British labour for the privilege.

CLOSE DOWN

That flood will destroy the British Car Industry. It will close down British factories and put tens of thousands of British car workers on the dole. Then, when it suits them, they will be off to France, Italy or wherever concessions and incentives mean cheaper production costs, continuing to bombard Britain from their new factories abroad.

In their wake they will leave their thousand or so workers in Washington to return to the dole queues, joining the 30,000 British Car Workers put on the dole because of the influx of Japanese cars.

Storm over NF drugs march

SIX WEEKS after the National Front's march against drug abuse though Harlow the debate concerning that day's activity still rages on in the pages of the local newspaper.

The latest move is a complaint by Harlow Constituency Labour Party that Harlow's Labour councillors were not consulted by the Police about the march.

RESTRAINED

Leader of the council, Tom Farr, who was involved in the counter demonstration and had to be restrained by police on a number of occasions, told the Harlow and Epping Star "I find the National Front offensive. If the police had asked for council permission to use public property for the march it would not have been given".

Chief Superintendent John Watson of Essex Police, however, found the Labour Party demonstrators offensive. He told the same paper, "The people who came to demonstrate against the National Front were very badly behaved. They used foul language and attempted to obstruct the march on several occasions by blocking the road."

The National Front is a lawful political party and it is Police policy that processions are traditional and legitimate methods of expressing an opinion.

● NF's Anti-Drugs March.

What are they doing to our country?

with
Ted Budden

THE BELLE OF the SDP, Shirley Williams (Miss-Dragged-Through-A-Hedge Backwards 1947), was naturally aghast when the news from Handsworth reached the SDP Conference at Torquay. It was like a bombshell; well, actually, like a brick dropped into mush.

"Oh!", wailed the veteran scragbag, "we must not condone these riots. They have brought S. Africa to Birmingham."

She was, and not for the first time, wrong on all counts. The black mayhem was not at all S.African. Indeed, watching our wonderful police cowering behind their riot shields while crazed coons burned and looted at will, I would have wished for some imported S. African policemen to have taken the matter in hand.

No, it was not S. Africa we saw in Birmingham but Black Africa via the W. Indies and the "they" who are responsible are none other than Shirley Williams, David "Dimples" Owen, Woy Jenkins and all the other drivelling "one-world" creeps.

It is rightly said that you can take the black man out of the jungle but you can't take the jungle out of the black man. It is the white "liberal" degenerates who have thereby brought the jungle to the heart of all great cities, first of America and now Britain.

ALARM

As we now see them twittering with alarm at the fruits of their labours, one is tempted, with some satisfaction, to observe that their chickens have come home to roost.

Alas, the rampant Rastas were not burning, looting, raping and murdering among the SDP slobes at the Palace Hotel, Torquay.

Their chickens are roosting on our patch!

Labouring the Point

THE NOTTING Hill Carnival has been inflicted upon us yet again and the media has frantically assured us that a wonderful time was had by all. We saw the usual pictures of jovial London bobbies dancing with coal black mummies, smirking nervously the while as if they half expected at any moment to be stabbed in the vicinity of his baton pocket.

Mrs Thatcher sent a message of advance congratulations, presumably hoping that this might induce the revellers to rob, rape and murder a little less than usual.

This in turn goaded ace creep Neil Kinnock into making a personal appearance at the festivities to be photographed carrying a small coon on his narrow shoulders. The white man's burden? Hardly. I doubt if anyone is going to accuse Kinnock of being a white man.

Still, it's one for my scrap book. I've never before seen a peanut surmounted by a coconut. Maybe it's the Labour Party's new coat of arms.

Ace of Spades

LIBERTY'S, the West End store, is to phase out the sale of goliwog teapots, egg cups and mugs after receiving a complaint from a certain Miss Geraldine Murphy, presumably one of the black Irish.

Miss Murphy alleged that the goliwogs gave a negative image of black people. Strange that. Surely a negative image would have made them White.

However, Liberty's have accepted that the goliwogs might be offensive to "black and ethnic people". Ethnic people? Surely everyone is ethnic.

DART BOARD

I'm certainly ethnic and I can assure Liberty's that goliwogs don't offend me at all — why, my goliwog dart board has given me hours of innocent pleasure.

It is a sad fact that the terrorists of the race relations industry have so scared the more timid citizens that they no longer dare to call a spade a spade.

Pretty soon they will think twice about calling them ethnic and after that, who knows, it might be an offence under the Race Relations Act to suggest that they belong to the species homo sapiens.

Well I for one would not wish to commit such an offence so I'll pre-empt that possibility and state right here and now; I don't think blacks are homo sapiens at all.

Getting paid £1M to bankrupt Britain

£750,000 OF British taxpayers' money has been paid to the New York banking firm, Lazard Freres, as an initial payment in the 'transfer fee' that brought Coal Board boss Ian MacGregor to Britain.

Another £400,000 in settlement of the deal for MacGregor's three years at British Steel will be paid next year.

The money has been as good as thrown down the drain. In 1980, the year MacGregor took over, British steel lost £350 million. Under his reign that soared to £700 million. Last year BSC lost £409 million, £180 million of that being put down to the Miners' Strike for which MacGregor was responsible.

The Government eagerly point out that none of that money will be going to MacGregor directly although they acknowledge he will benefit. He just happens to be a partner in Lazard Freres.

Police Retreat: 'Rasta'

● Marching out of Handsworth.

HANDSWORTH IS a 'Free City' once again. The riot was a message to the Government and the Police. It has been quietly digested and acted upon.

Once the scale of the riot became apparent the Police immediately started back pedalling.

With buildings burning and Police and fireman being stoned, tear gas and baton rounds should have been used to disperse the rioters. They were not. Geoffrey Dear, the Chief Constable of the West Midlands, explained "We did not use them and there are political reasons for that. The West Midlands Police Committee is solidly against the use of baton rounds. It is a highly emotive medium".

So the Police let the riot run its course hoping that the rioters

● Black youths in Handsworth give a warning to the authorities. "Don't interfere in our Black Society. The laws of your white society don't apply to us".

Riot Plans Laid Two Months in Advance!

THERE WAS nothing spontaneous about the Handsworth riot. It was a riot planned with near military precision months before it actually took place.

A 'trial run' for the riot had taken place during July when 60 blacks provoked a police response. They attacked a Police motorcyclist pushing his machine through a shop window, they stoned Police vehicles as they came to his assistance and they looted shops. The Police dismissed the incident as a 'small disturbance' but according to a local solicitor who witnessed the scene it took some hours for the Police to gain control of the situation.

On Sunday 8th September, Police Chiefs danced on the streets of Handsworth with the very people who organised the riot. They were lulled into a false sense of security and bubbled over to the local media what a success story community relations was in Handsworth.

It was just what the riot organisers wanted. Twenty-four hours later they ordered the start of the riot with the torching of the Villa Road Bingo Hall.

* 8.35p.m. As fireman arrived to put out the blaze they were stoned by black youths and told to leave the area by local community leaders.

* 8.45p.m. Street barricades were set up by means of overturning cars and setting them on fire. The area was completely sealed off.

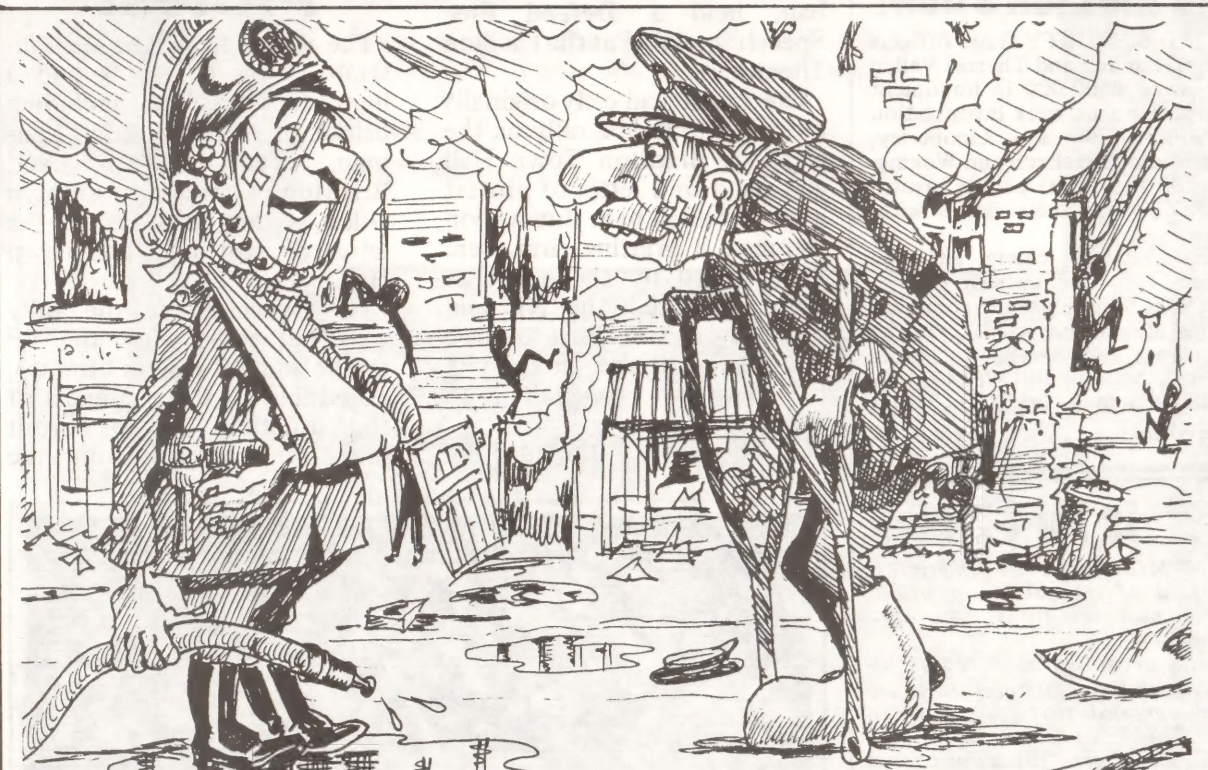

The speed at which the street barricades were thrown up before the Police were able to respond and the readiness to hand of petrol bombs confirmed the thoroughness of the riot's planners.

* 9.00-11.30p.m. With the area effectively sealed off the looting and burning began. Starting at the lower end of the Lozells Road, 50 shops were systematically looted then set on fire. The stolen goods from each shop were wrapped in black plastic bags and stored in the front gardens of 'safe houses' nearby. Six hours later the stolen goods were picked up by the looters. There was no squabbling or fighting, each bag of booty was identified and taken away. (This was done under the eyes of the Police yet no effort was made to arrest the looters).

SIGNIFICANCE

A riot is an outbreak of lawlessness. When Blacks or Asians are involved it means burning and looting. During the riot on September 9th that burning and looting had special significance. The burning and destruction of property was a warning to the Police and Government to keep their hands off Handsworth, the looting was the rioters rewards for passing that message on.

● THE RACIST FIREMAN TO THE FASCIST POLICE CHIEF "ARE YOU SURE THEY'RE ENRICHING OUR CULTURE GUV?"

would be satisfied with the proceeds of the night. When, by the afternoon of the following day, after the stoning of Home Secretary Douglas Hurd it was obvious that they weren't, more concessions were made.

Police retreated from the Villa Cross district leaving this area of Handsworth in the hands of the previous nights rioters. They also released Nigel Heath, one of the riot leaders.

Chief Superintendent Donald Wilson, head of West Midlands "C" Division, told community leaders that the Police would keep a low profile around Villa Cross and the road it stands on. Later that night black vigilante patrols could be seen prowling the district.

In the riots of 1981 on July 10th and 11th 530 were arrested in Handsworth. In the riots of September 9th and 10th 1985, agreed by all to have been infinitely worse, only 125 were arrested. The figures speak for themselves.

Handsworth has been surrendered once again to the force of lawlessness. The brave attempt by its white residents to return part of our country back to civilisation, where families can walk without fear has been thwarted.

The Sole Demand of White Tenants

A LAWFUL SOCIETY

NOT ALL of Handsworth is a black ghetto. There are some beleaguered white residents, they make up 30% of the 58,000 population, who have stood firm against the steady encroachment of the area by Asian and Afro-Caribbean immigrants, and three of Handsworth's seven housing estates are totally white.

It was these white families, at their wits end because of the total lawlessness within Handsworth, who badgered the Police into taking action to bring order to the borough; and it was that Police campaign, on behalf of Handsworth's white residents that led to the riot on Monday September 9th.

Since 1981 and the introduction of community policing, where, under instruction from its instigator, former Superintendent David Webb, laws were bent to suit the ethnic community, Handsworth has become the drug distribution centre for Birmingham.

IDEAL

It didn't take the drugs barons long to recognise that Webb's policy of banning the West Midlands Drugs Squad from the area and observing pushers rather than arresting them would make Handsworth an ideal trading station. At the end of 1981 Webb resigned, but his soft line approach was continued by Superintendent Martin Burton. It wasn't until April 1985 when Burton was promoted that a policeman not totally convinced about community policing arrived at Handsworth. Supt. David Love found drugs sold openly in broad daylight and black youngsters smoking cannabis and marijuana on the streets without a care. The area was littered with illegal drinking clubs and gambling dens. There were at least two brothels, every evening without exception reggae parties blared out Caribbean music until dawn, and many parts of the suburb were no-go areas for the police.

Within his first week in office Superintendent Love had been put in the picture as to what life was like in Handsworth by the representatives of the three white tenants' associations. David Love acknowledged, "There was a serious drugs problem that was growing at an alarming rate. This was quite unacceptable".

So the drive against Handsworth's booming drug business started. * Raids in May at a public house and cafe led to seizures of large quantities of drugs and 27 arrests. * On July 10th 150 officers raided the Acapulco cafe. There were seven arrests. * At the end of August £300,000 of heroin was seized after a raid on a house in Handsworth.

Despite the clamp-down drugs-related crime soared during July and August (Official crime figures for Handsworth). Marijuana was still being smoked in the street and the use of heroin and cocaine in the area was growing. Drug pushers were moving into the area, not out, and a days dealing was netting them up to £1,000.

DISRUPTING

Although the drugs business was booming the drugs barons behind it were not happy. The raids, though ineffectual, were disrupting business. A business that for three years had suffered no interference from the Police. As soon as the change in Police policy became apparent there was a meeting of all those people whose living depended on Handsworth's drugs trade. From the West Indian street-corner pusher to the Asian businessmen's syndicate which brought the drugs into the country. They decided that something must be done to warn the Police and the Establishment that their meddling would not be tolerated. It was then that the plans for the riot that took place on September 9th were hatched.

FREE CITY: WHERE BLACKS ARE ABOVE THE LAW!

£24 MILLION has been poured into Handsworth since the riots of 1981.

More than half that money has gone into water supply schemes and housing: many Handsworth people live in neat bungalows or spruced up Victorian terraces in tree-lined streets. More money has gone into community projects such as play-huts, shop improvements and a nursery school while handouts to Black and Asian groups have rarely been refused.

Special treatment has been given to the residents of Lozell Road and Villa Road. In the last 4 years they have received £8.21 million, the majority of which went up in smoke on September 9th.

BLIND-EYE

But money alone is not enough to keep the lid on the multiracial cauldron of places like Handsworth. Blacks and Asians have their own ideas on the kind of society they wish to live in. It's a society which calls for lax or blind-eye policing, a society where the fears and aspirations of the white community must take second place to those of the coloured majority. It is only then that West Indians, Africans and Asians are prepared to exist in the framework of the 'British Society'.

Handsworth as such is a typical 'Free City', as the West Indians call it. A 'Free City' where the authorities turn a blind eye to illegal drinking clubs, gambling dens, brothels and drug-pushing. Ted Flint, who runs a Caribbean food shop in Handsworth explains, "Offences such as no road tax, possessing or selling cannabis or illegal parking are not prosecuted in Handsworth because of a 'tacit agreement' between the community and the Police".

West Midlands Chief Constable, Geoffrey Dear, admitted that many offences were customarily ignored in Handsworth, "We would not be foolish enough to fiddle around with parking tickets in Handsworth. You police an area according to the situation and parking tickets would be off limits".

SURRENDERED

Why there have been so relatively few disturbances of riot proportions in Britain's multiracial inner-cities is because the Police, under instruction from local authorities and presumably with the blessing of Mrs Thatcher's Government, have surrendered areas of Britain to organised immigrant crime.

It's a policy of peace at any price and succeeds as long as the White community of these 'Free City' areas are prepared to knuckle under and accept such lawlessness. In Handsworth the White community were not prepared to accept such a state of affairs and forced the Police to take action.

More British Soil Under U.S. Control

OUTRAGE has greeted the news that RAF Chessington has been handed over to the American army.

The news of the hand-over was made in early September by a gleeful Tory Surbiton MP, Richard Tracey. He announced that the Ministry of Defence had agreed with the US Army that RAF Chessington would be made available to them for use as a peacetime storage facility for reserve medical supplies and equipment - and as a wartime hospital.

He also announced that the Yanks would be conducting "medical training exercises involving perhaps 50 medical staff." These exercises would take place "a number of times a year."

ANGRY

But many local people are angry and dismayed about the hand-over. One local resident commented:

"We are very concerned at what is to be involved in their exercises.

Will there be military vehicles using residential roads or helicopters buzzing above our homes?"

Another local man said "Now the land is American we have no control over what happens there. Americans stationed at the base could carry loaded weapons and use them, as it will technically be American soil."

However, Richard Tracey doesn't seem to be worried about what the ordinary people think. After all, he is only following Tory party policy. And that policy is to continually hand over British soil to the Imperialist American war machine.

The only organisation which upholds the concept of British National Sovereignty is the National Front. Those people who oppose the American army's take over of RAF Chessington should join us in our struggle to remove all foreign troops from our country.

Armed Neutrality Now - Yanks Go Home!

A MARS A DAY...

by Patrick Harrington

EACH YEAR nearly 6 million teeth are extracted in this country. This is partly due to the high consumption of confectionery in Britain. With these figures in mind one chocolate confectionery manufacturer - Mars - has for the past four years part-funded Guy's Hospitals 'Department of Oral Immunology' to come up with a preventative vaccine aimed at preventing tooth decay.

SUFFERING

All might at first seem well. Unfortunately, however, animals are suffering in order to develop the vaccine. Rhesus Monkeys are being fed an unnaturally high sugar-rich diet to bring about tooth decay. They are then arranged into groups and treated with a vaccine containing various levels of treated bacteria.

The bacteria's progress is then assessed.

Mars claim that the monkeys - often as intelligent as five year old humans - are treated with care and compassion, but it is clear from the limited evidence available that mental and physical pain and discomfort have to be endured.

SUGAR-FREE

In this situation legislation must be passed which reflects public outrage at such experiments. The development of vaccines is not the answer to problems such as tooth decay, diabetes and heart disease which are partly the result of a sugar-rich diet. The answer lies in encouraging the development of sugar-free foods.

Chew on that when you next buy a Mars bar.

£3.50 inc (p&p)

Above the Ruins, as well as being on No Surrender have an excellent cassette LP of their own.

It is a LP that Nationalist Books can recommend. It calls for a new Europe on its best track "Storm Clouds over Europe" whose lyrics describe a Europe crushed between two super powers.

Above the Ruins are a band that are trying to do something different within the Nationalist Music scene. They deserve to be supported.

Please send me the Above The Ruins cassette tape. I enclose £3.50 including postage and package.

FRONT LAUNCH NEW YNF PAPER

★ NEW DAWN

HAIL THE NEW DAWN! — That's the only way we can describe the appearance of New Dawn, which recently replaced Bulldog, as the paper of the Young National Front.

This change comes after the realisation that Bulldog was, to some degree, very negative, and perhaps reflected the thinking and actions of the NF's old leadership. However, the National Front now has a new, younger, more idealistic and positive leadership. Thus it is only natural that the Movement's new youth paper should be positive in outlook.

The editorial of New Dawn explains why the paper was launched and what form it will take:

"New Dawn is taking a much more positive stance, something that is needed in the years to come. Quite frankly Bulldog has served its purpose and now the emphasis must change to one of racial pride and unity, education and the involvement of YNF members and supporters".

Despite these major changes, many of the old Bulldog favourites remain. The importance now placed upon Rock Against Communism is reflected in its 3-page White Noise feature. New Dawn's first White Noise feature has an article tracing the history of Rock Against Communism and White Noise Records.

Other articles within the White Noise feature a whole page of Skrewdriver News, RAC Bird, RAC Chart, and news of two new albums, No Surrender! a 16 track compilation album, and Skrewdriver's latest, Blood and Honour.

Two Futurist bands — Above The Ruins and Final Sound — are also featured in an article looking at other forms of RAC bands. One of these bands, Above The Ruins, already has a brilliant cassette album out, entitled Songs of the Wolf. Both Above The Ruins and Final Sound have tracks on the compilation album No Surrender!

New Dawn also features a page of merchandise, where British youth can buy the latest Nationalist T-Shirts, badges, stickers, posters, records, tapes and books.

Other features include: The YNF's anti-drugs campaign, the NF in action against the IRA, the YNF Football competition, and lots, lots, more!

All in all, New Dawn is sure to be a great success. Indeed, there can be no doubt that New Dawn — subtitled 'Revolutionary Voice Of British Youth' — will play a vital role in our final victory!

Send off for your sample copy of New Dawn! Send 30p to: New Dawn, 50 Pawsons Road, Croydon, Surrey CRO 2QF. (Tel: 01-684-0271). To subscribe, just send £5 to the same address. (Please make all cheques/PO's out to "Nationalist Publications").

SKREWDRIVER TOP RAC BILL

NEARLY SIX HUNDRED people attended the Rock Against Communism Summer Festival this year — over a hundred more than last year. The Festival took place in the heart of the English countryside with people arriving from all over the British Isles to enjoy the atmosphere.

However, the most encouraging thing of all about this year's Festival was the number of bands who turned up to play. Last year six bands turned out to show their opposition to the Marxists who control the music press and other parts of the rock music industry. This year the number of bands playing reached double figures, with ten bands turning out to play. Even more encouraging was the fact that they came from all over the country.

Top of the bill were Skrewdriver who are London based. Other London bands were Brutal Attack and the Die-Hards, while Razor Sharp and Public Enemy came from Kent and Indecent Exposure came from Hertfordshire. Other bands included Last Orders from Grimsby, New Dawn from Scotland, Society's Rejects from Belfast and Prime Suspects from Reading.

Many of these bands are featured on the new compilation album called No Surrender which is now available from the Nationalist Bookshop in Croydon. It sells for £5 plus 50 pence postage and packing.

Wandsworth Branch Reformed

THE WANDSWORTH Branch of the National Front has been reformed. It was disbanded in 1983.

At a meeting near Clapham Common on Thursday 12 September, 30 local members voted in a four-man committee (three gentlemen and a lady) and a programme of activities for the coming months was discussed.

The guest speaker was National Activities Organiser, Martin Wingfield, who outlined the progress the NF had made during 1985.

Social Raises £93.00

DANCING ON the lawn, midnight bathing, and lethal home-made punch were the ingredients that went into a highly successful Brighton NF fund-raising party.

Eighty local members drank, ate, talked and danced until the early hours enjoying an evening that raised £93.00 for branch funds.

On the stroke of midnight a dozen hardy members went for a swim much to the amazement of late-night revellers making their way from an evening on the town.

Environment Under Attack

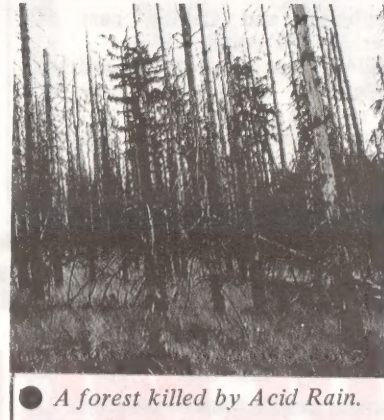

THE PROBLEM of acid rain is causing more concern as the number of eroded monuments, lifeless lakes and dying forests increase on a worldwide basis. Industries fuelled by coal, particularly smelting works and power plants, are the prime sources of chemical and nitrogen oxide.

These pollutants, expelled into the atmosphere, can be carried for hundreds — even thousands — of miles by prevailing winds. The chemicals may then mix with other chemicals in the atmosphere to produce caustic or poisonous substances and be rained or simply settled onto the land below.

Reports of extensive forest damage have come from Poland, East Germany and Russia. West Germany estimates that 34 per-cent of its forests are in trouble from acid rain. In Czechoslovakia, one in ten trees is now dead.

UNINHABITABLE

The world's lakes have also been particularly hit hard. For instance, more than 200 lakes in the Adirondack Mountains of New York are devoid of fish. Authorities in Canada estimate that 4,600 of the lakes in eastern Canada are now uninhabitable for fish. Sweden cites 9,000 lakes that have been affected. In all cases, acid rain is blamed. The most recent research notes that, ironically, forest-fire prevention has kept alkaline ash from neutralising some acid-polluted soils. Additionally, it is thought that increased ozone makes trees more vulnerable to acids.

Scientists and Environmentalists alike agree that clean-up programmes will be expensive and may have limited results. Yet, the countries hardest hit, are convinced that something — even if costly and limited — must be done to save the world's lakes and forests. (Indeed, in a belated and ineffective move, eighteen governments have resolved to cut their emissions of sulphur dioxide by 1993.)

However, many people fear that, even if acid-causing emissions were eliminated altogether, it would take decades to restore damaged lakes and forests to their original health and productivity.

Losing the battle against drugs

THE NUMBER of registered drug addicts in Britain rose by 26 per-cent last year. And addicts now spend £400 million a year to satisfy their cravings.

— They were just two of the shock figures recently released by the Home Office relating to the menace of drug abuse.

Other figures note that there has been a rise of 200% in registered addicts in the last four years.

It is also disturbing to note that drugs such as cocaine and heroin are no longer the preserve of the trendy middle-class. Much more drug dealing went on in Working class areas — especially inner-city housing estates.

REAL FIGURES

As if this wasn't bad enough, Dep. Chief Supt. Roy Penrose, head of Scotland Yard's Central Drugs Squad, estimated that the real figures for drug addiction in Britain could be at least FIVE times higher than the Home Office figures.

This latest news only goes to underline the NF's current campaign against the drug dealers. It's now evident that the authorities have failed in their efforts to stop the flow of drugs into Britain. The only way to stop a drugs epidemic sweeping our land is for the people themselves to make a stand.

Therefore, if anybody has any knowledge of those who deal in drugs, please phone the NF's anti-drugs hotline on: 01-684-0271. (All calls dealt with in strict confidence).

INVASION OF OUR 'GREEN' HERITAGE

THE TORY GOVERNMENT'S "atrocious" decision to route the Okehampton bypass in Devon through the Dartmoor national park means that no national park in England or Wales is safe from desecration.

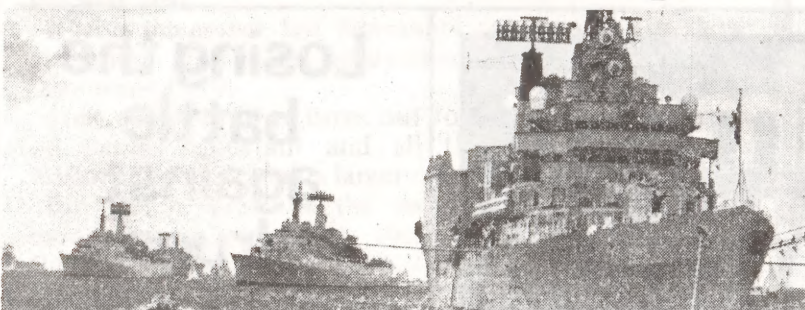

— That was the view of Dr. Geoff Eastwood, an executive committee member of the Rambler's Association.

Addressing a meeting last month in North Yorkshire, he also noted that it "was utterly deplorable" for the Government to ignore its own policy on roads through national parks, to reject the views of its statutory advisers the Country Commission, and to seek to overturn the decision of a joint parliamentary select committee.

The National Front totally opposes this invasion of the natural heritage preserved in Dartmoor national park. By its action the Government has set a terrifying precedent which opens all national parks to threats from major roads, and from reservoirs, conifers afforestation, oil and gas exploration, quarrying and other harmful developments.

Privatisation gives America control over Naval Dockyards

● The British Navy. Under American Control?

BRITAIN could well be losing control of its vital naval dockyards.

The Government's ludicrous plans to privatise Rosyth and Devonport dockyards, a plan which rides roughshod over the recommendations of two Commons Select Committees, makes it possible for them to be taken over by Standard Telephones and Cables, part of American ITT conglomerate.

While Defence Secretary Heseltine worries how to break the news of the massive redundancies to the British public, Britain's service chiefs glumly accept that soon they will have no control over the defence of Britain.

OUR ROOTS IN SAXON GRAVE

AS A BRITISH patriotic political party the National Front has a great love for Britain's history, culture and heritage. We regard the present generation of Britons as merely the latest link in a chain which forms a continuum through time.

So the news that archaeologists have discovered one of the biggest and richest Anglo-Saxon cemeteries ever found in the north, is of great interest to us.

The cemetery contained 120 burial sites and items such as jewellery and weapons have already been uncovered.

The burials are believed to have taken place — at the site in Norton, Cleveland — over a 70-year period. Additionally, the number and quality of the items found challenges the widely held belief that the biggest and wealthiest Saxon tribes were concentrated in the south.

The cemetery itself was discovered in early September, when a skull was found to be that of a woman who died around AD 550.

This Saxon treasure find comes at a particularly vital time for the Nationalist Movement. Many of our people are culturally 'lost', and are desperately seeking their true history and 'roots'. This discovery allows us to build up a greater picture of our racial forefathers — and strengthens the feeling of a 'link' between them and our present generation.

● Saxon discovery allows us to build up a picture of our forefathers

Animal Agony: "in the interests of Race Relations"

ANIMALS ARE suffering in the interests of Race Relations.

On Saturday September 7th, 29 sheep were ritually slaughtered in the back yard of an Asian shop in Grosvenor Road, Eastwood, Rotherham, S. Yorks.

Ritual slaughter means that each animal had its throat cut, and was alive and in agony as its blood drained away.

Health officials had approved the slaughter for a muslim festival, but as complaints from neighbours flooded in they refused to discuss the matter further claiming that the issue could pose a danger to race relations in the area.

Local residents, who had watched the flock of sheep being herded in from a lorry the previous day, were appalled at the stench during the mass killing and horrified to see blood overflowing in the road-side drains.
